Jason & Jenny

About Us

We met on a blind date set up by Jason's cousin who was a friend of Jenny's from church. We quickly connected and found the most important thing we had in common is our love for the Lord. We share the same values and importance of family. We have now been married for five years. Jenny has two sons from her previous marriage and had been praying for a Godly man to come into her life for her and the boys. God's answer was greater than she could have ever imagined. While Nathan (13) and Jacob (10) both have a great relationship with their dad, Jason is the "every day" dad. Even though they may not be his by birth he loves them as though they are. It has been a beautiful adventure building our family and we feel that God is leading us to add to our family through adoption. Nathan and Jacob are so excited for a new sibling. This baby will be so loved and protected by two big brothers!

As a family we love to be outdoors camping, canoeing, hiking and attending pretty much any sporting event. Jason has also been teaching the boys to fish while Jenny reads a book! We enjoy weekend trips to visit my brother and family. We keep pretty busy as both boys play baseball and football and we love to watch them play. We manage to find time alone together and enjoy trying a new restaurant or seeing a movie or just going for a drive. We enjoy sharing our days with each other and are each other's biggest fans!

More About Us

Jason

Written by Jenny

Jason is the most wonderful man I know! He is very quiet but his quiet confident strength is part of what drew me to him. He does not have children of his own and it was an amazing thing to watch him step in to the father role with my boys so naturally. I was already in love with him but the day he teared up and told me how much he loves my boys pretty much sealed it for me! He has become the leader of our family. He is a man of great integrity and is a protector and provider of us all. The boys love him and look up to him. In fact Nathan when had to write something about who his hero is and why, my heart melted when he told me he chose Jason. Jason shows his love for us every day by putting us first. He makes me feel loved every day. He is the man God chose to fill the hole in my heart and in our family.

Jason likes to fish and hunt. He also loves to go to movies. He can fix almost anything. Jason is a plumber with 20 years of experience and is the foreman on large new construction commercial buildings. He says that being a plumber taught him that because he has to be able to do or figure out anything. He demonstrated this by building a beautiful large deck on our house all by himself and we spend many quiet evenings out there.

Jenny

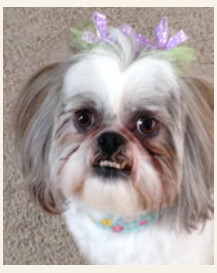
Jenny is a sweet, tender woman full of personality. She is a motivated and dedicated wife and mother. She has so much compassion for others and is always willing to listen to some one and encourage them. She spends a lot of time planning family events (picnics, parties) for our family as well as finding new and fun things for us to do as a family. She loves to spend her summer with the boys at her aunt's or my sister's pool. Jenny is a music teacher and has taught elementary music for 18 years. She really enjoys getting to be a stay-at-home mom all summer. She is easy to be around and has an infectious smile that makes you want to smile too. That's actually what drew me to her--that smile! Jenny loves to sing and she serves at our church on the praise team and choir. She enjoys cooking (when she has time) but even when she is busy she gets dinner on the table and we eat as a family almost every night of the week. She is a blessing to me and our family.

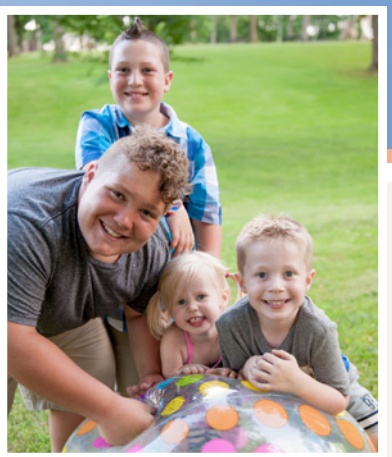
Our Home

We absolutely love the town we live in. It is a smaller village but has everything we would ever need. Our house is in a lovely newer development with sidewalks which was important to Jenny! It is a two story colonial with four bedrooms. We have a nice yard with plenty of space for the kids to play and the neighborhood has kids of all ages mostly under 10. We live close enough to the high school that we can hear the marching band practicing in late summer and walk to Friday night football games.



Our dog is a 13 pound Shih Tzu named Lola who has a ton of personality. She loves people and is the sweetest little thing. She loves to play or cuddle on our laps.

Our family



Fun at the park with cousins!

We are blessed to have a wonderful family. Jenny's Mom passed in 2015 but her Dad lives nearby and attends the same church as us. We enjoy Sunday dinners after church with him and see him during the week especially during football and baseball seasons as he rarely misses a game. Jenny has one brother Rich who is married to Kami and they have two children, Walker (4) and Piper (2). They live about 3 hours away, but we see them about once a month with either family traveling to the other for the weekend. These weekends are always filled with so much fun and laughter. We have gone on vacation with them several times and these are the best memories. We talk and text regularly and the boys and their cousins facetime all the time! We are very close to Jenny's Aunt Kim and her family. She has become a sort of grandma/aunt to the boys and we spend lots of time at her house for family gatherings or just hanging at her pool.

Jason's family is close as well. He comes from a family of six – with nephews and nieces who are close in age to him. We love hanging out with them at his sisters' house where there is always a pool party! We enjoy our visits with his Mom often taking her out to dinner. We all like to go to see Jason's Dad and Stepmom and listen to stories of his younger days. We get to see lots of siblings, nieces and nephews at his sister's pool during the summers and cherish our time spent with them.

Dear Birthmother,

Thank you for taking the time to look at our profile. We believe that you considering an adoption plan will be the ultimate act of great love for your unborn child. We hope reading our profile gives you the glimpse into our lives that you are looking for. We pray that you feel a sense of calm and that God leads you in your decision making process.

Family is very important to us. We are both from relatively small towns and are very close to our families. Our faith is also very important to us as we are Christians and we are members of our church. Jenny is very active in the music ministry and the boys are involved in kid's activities. Jason is the man to jump in and help move tables or whatever else needs done! We have a wonderful group of friends at church who are so supportive and are an important part of our lives.

We are raising our boys to first love God then love others. We would be so blessed to add a little one to our family. We pray that you have peace and wisdom as you choose a family and we look forward to meeting you.

Sincerely,

Jason and Jenny

Why Adoption?

God is leading us to add to our family through adoption. We would love to have children of our own, however due to past medical issues Jenny can no longer have children and Jason has no biological children. We love raising the boys so much we feel that our family can grow through adoption. We believe that all children are gifts from God born with a purpose and a plan. We are certain that we could raise a child of a different ethnicity to be proud of his or her culture and above all to love and show love to others.
