about us

We thank you so much for taking the time to view our profile! We met in 2011 through mutual friends and it was truly love at first sight! In under a year, our relationship quickly escalated and we tied the knot in June of 2013! We both love trying new restaurants, and enjoy being outside in the summertime. On cold nights we like to spend time by the fireplace! Our favorites are making memories with our families, and connecting with new people. Sam manages a virtual dental support center with well over 100 clients. She has a great skill set that enables her to multitask in a high volume center. Chris works in a rubber compounding business that is in high demand. Chris still works in production but is soon moving to his new promotion to maintenance technician. Since day one we knew we wanted a family, children to love. We can't wait to watch them grow, learn, and to have a whole lot of fun!

our home

From the moment we stepped into our home we knew we would eventually raise our family here. We live in a very quiet neighborhood consisting of many families around us. Our home is a 3 bedroom two bath ranch, large family room for entertaining, and even a finished basement with a fireplace where we love to enjoy a nice warm fire on cold nights. In our back yard we have a 75 foot run for our dog that he loves so much, a fire pit where we love to host friends and family during the summer and fall, and our chicken coop. We have just under a half acre total, we can see ourselves spending lots of time with our future kids out there! Chris loves working around the house making home improvements. You'll find Sam decorating and making our house beautiful.

ABOUT samantha

(written by chris)

Beautiful. Kind hearted. Loves Jesus. Loves people.

Samantha is truly beautiful inside and out. She has a countenance that glows everywhere she goes. Without a doubt she is the kindest hearted person I know. Whenever she stops and talks to someone she is totally invested in what the person is saying, and has a coaching and loving attitude. This is one of the things I love most about her, how much she really loves and cares about the people around her. I never knew what love was until I met her. She embodies unconditional love, and I am so thankful for that in her. Her love for Jesus is just as strong, if not stronger. She stands on the Word of God, and uses her Faith day in and day out. Samantha is all about family. Every holiday she doesn't want to miss a moment with our big families! It's not about the food, gifts, or drinks it's all about the people for her. Especially our nieces and nephews, she takes the time to get right down on the floor and play with their toys and trinket with them. She is my rock, the center of my world, she is strong.

ABOUT chris

(written by samantha)

Chris is a one of a kind, and has a tremendously huge heart to many people surrounding him! Within our relationship and marriage, he has taught me wisdom, patience, and guidance. He will stop whatever he is doing to help someone in need, and I absolutely love that trait about him! He serves the Lord every Sunday, and the love he pours out to our families, is so important to me. Chris is also a jokester, and enjoys pranking me and giving me endless belly laughs. You will find Chris doing outside projects/ house projects, taking care of our chickens, and playing with our dog. My favorite thing watching Chris do is how he reacts with our nieces and nephews, and our friend's children. He always has this calming presence about him, he is my safe zone and I am so grateful God led me to him.

our family + friends

Our families mean the world to us, and family is both very important to us! We get together monthly at Chris parents' house to have game nights, dinners, and share many laughs and many upon many jokes with Chris two older sisters, our brother in laws and our 3 nephews, and 3 nieces! Holidays are the best memories Sam shares with her family! Just this past year, we had Sam's grandma over to help share and make an Italian Christmas dinner for the whole family, and those are the best memories we love making together! Sam has one younger brother and one older step brother and loves sharing jokes, and spending time together with them! We are both very close to our parents, and our huge blended families we share!

Our friends are basically our families too! We have a large diverse group of friends including relationships we shared for many years, our work friends, and our church friends! Our friends are very supportive, and will stop what they are doing to help anyone out! We are blessed to have so many caring people in our lives to call friends! We enjoy game nights, and spending time outside having bonfires/ cookouts, games, trying new restaurants, and doing many outdoors activities! We have our village of supporters!

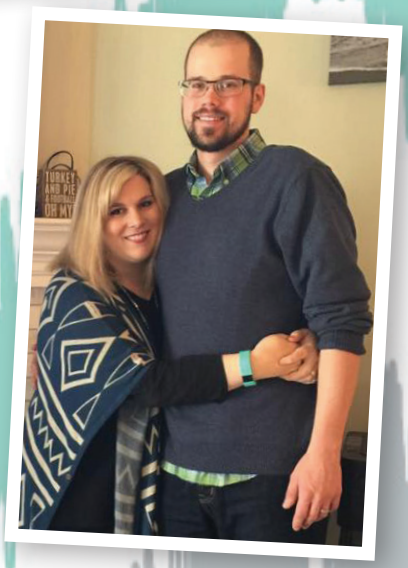
hello!

First and foremost, we sincerely want to thank you for taking your time to see a glimpse of a page in our life! Our wish is that you are able to see just how much we love doing life together and see how blessed we are to be in this journey with you. Prior to us ever meeting, our paths has crossed many times! From the connection of mutual friends, we instantly connected with many belly laughs and the rest is history! Adoption plays a huge role in our families, as both of our fathers were adopted. Your child will be surrounded by open and loving hearts to the fullest degree. We believe in providing a nurturing love, acceptance, guidance, and a fulfilling life to your child. We look forward to having family traditions, we cannot wait for this day to come! Our dream has always been of finding that missing piece to our puzzle.

sincerely,

♥ chris + samantha



xoxo why adoption

Adoption has never been far from our minds. We both come from very well blended families, both of our fathers were adopted. Truly we have come to learn that family does not come from blood, but comes from the love of the heart. We both have a strong desire to have children, and when we found out we couldn't have children of our own we knew what Gods plan was for us. More than anything we want children to love, laugh, and spend our lives with. We cannot wait for this dream to come true for us!
