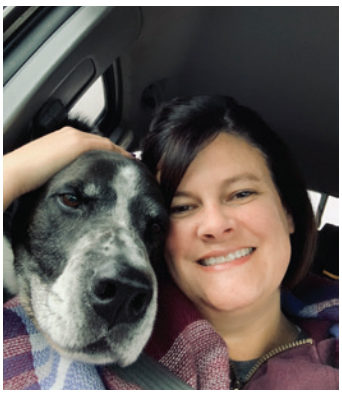
Sarah + Tisha

About Us

We met at work, and instantly became best friends. We just clicked. It was apparent that we were meant for each other, not just to us, but also to our friends and family. We were married on a REALLY hot summer day at a local park ("I Do BBQ!"). It was simple and perfect. One thing that is central to our relationship is laughter. We love to laugh with each other. We feel this brings joy to our household. We are able to make each other smile on even the most difficult days.

Telling you about our family would not be complete without including our fur babies. Liam is an 8-year old big lug of a lab-mix who loves everyone, and is loved by everyone. He is a gentle giant, and enjoys playing with children. We plan on getting him therapy dog certified in the near future. Patty is our 10-year old silky terrier. Dora is our 12-year old, overly large cat that thinks that she is a dog.

"It's always better when we're together." -Jack Johnson



Meet Tisha (written by sarah)

Tisha cares deeply about her friends and family. She is often checking in with them, and volunteering to help someone in need. She is compassionate and loving, and treats my family as her own. Our nephew often says "Tisha knows everything," which speaks to her ability to educate and communicate with children in a way that they understand. Tisha likes to cook and grill out. She is also very artistic and creative. Her talents include woodworking and painting. Tisha works very hard, and is appreciated at her place of work. She has done infusion coordination for over 10 years. She is truly the most loving and thoughtful person. She remembers the little things, like someone's favorite ice cream flavor or favorite song, which makes her an excellent gift-giver. I always know that when Tisha is around, my day will be brighter and more joyful.

Meet Sarah (written by tisha)

Sarah is the light of my life. She makes me smile without trying. She keeps me calm and grounded. She loves the people/things/animals that I love simply because I love them. She amazing with her niece and nephew, and I know that she will make a wonderful parent. She's smart, caring, and funny without meaning to be. Sarah has a strong work ethic, and has worked since she was 15 years old. She loves her clients, and feels a strong sense of accomplishment in her job as a therapist. Sarah is definitely my soul mate, and I am a better person for having been loved by her.

Our Home

We live in a single-family, 3 bedroom/2 bath, tri-level home on a corner lot in a very quiet neighborhood. We have a fenced in backyard. There are several playgrounds and a metro park within walking distance. We live within a few miles of several sports complexes, community pools, putt-putt golf, batting cages, a community center, and a library. We are also close to shopping and restaurants. The schools are excellent, and our neighborhood has a lot of families with young children. There are several urgent care centers and emergency rooms nearby as well.

Facts and Favorites

	Tisha	Sarah
Occupation:	Infusion Coordinator	Licensed Therapist
Favorite Food:	Sushi	Chicken Parmesan
Hobbies:	Fishing, boating, and painting	Knitting, reading, and concerts
Favorite TV Shows:	Whatever Sarah is watching	The Office, Supernatural, and Parks & Recreation
Favorite Movies:	Star Wars and The Conjuring	Pretty in Pink
Favorite Color:	Orange	Gray and yellow
Favorite Season:	Fall	Fall
Favorite Place to Shop:	Cabela's	Amazon
Favorite Music:	Pixies and Miranda Lambert	Lionel Ritchie and Gavin DeGraw
Favorite Quote:	"One moment can change a day, one day can change a life, and one life can change the world." -Buddha	"Nothing is impossible, the word itself says "I'm possible!" -Audrey Hepburn

Our Family

We have many people in our lives that are incredibly supportive of our decision to grow our family. Sarah has two siblings (brother and sister), a brother-in-law, and a niece and nephew. Her parents have been married for 48 years, and she has always had a close relationship with them. Most of her extended family is in the same state.

Tisha is an only child. Her mom lives in Illinois, and her dad lives in Alabama. She has family in Illinois, Alabama, Texas, and California. We see most of our family regularly during holidays and long weekends. We see her cousins, aunt, and uncle regularly, as they are local.

Our friends and family share our values of acceptance, compassion, curiosity, strength, humor, and respect. We are lucky to have them in our lives, and they are all extremely excited to be a part of our child's life.

Sarah's family

Sarah and her nephew

Tisha and her friend Laurel

Tisha's family

Tisha and her mom

Tisha's family (Brianna and Richie)

Sarah and her mom, sister, and niece

Tisha's family (Sophia and Carlos)

Tisha's family (cousins)

Tisha and her dad

Tisha with friends

Sarah, Tisha, and friends in New Orleans

Hi there!

We are so excited that you are taking the time to learn about our family. We have always wanted to be parents, but did not fully realize how much until we found each other. Laughter and love come easy to us, and we want to share that happiness with a child. We can promise you that, if we are given the chance, your child will grow up in a home filled with acceptance, unconditional love, laughter, and compassion. We will always support them, and help them feel as though they will change the world. We will also welcome a child from any cultural background, and will work to make sure that the child's culture is acknowledged and embraced.

Tisha + Sarah

Why Adoption?

We have both wanted children of our own for as long as we both can remember. After realizing how amazing we are as a team, how supportive we are of each other, and how much we love each other unconditionally, growing our family seemed like the next step for us. We look forward to teaching our child how to appreciate humanity, while still wanting to have the inner strength to want to change the world. We want our child to be strong yet vulnerable, and we feel as though adoption is an opportunity to teach them their truth, and to feel comfortable in their own special story.

Building Blocks Adoption Service Inc.