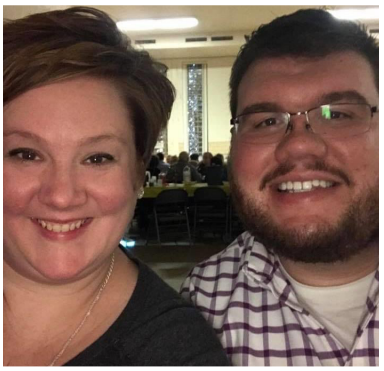
Jessica & Tim

About Us



Our story starts in high school, where we were both in marching band together and walked the same halls but never really talked or hung out. The reason for this was that Jessica was a senior when Tim was a freshman... and seniors never talk to freshman. Little did we know, that was just the beginning and we would become each others best friends 12 years later.

Thanks to Jessica's mom, and a Facebook picture of homemade pumpkin cookies, Jessica got up the courage to ask Tim out to dinner for their very first date. This is where the true love story began, on a Thursday, in a Mexican restaurant. Since that day, we have been together for eight years and married for five. We have faced challenges with fertility issues and through the ups and downs of this obstacle put in front of us, we still remained best friends. Although it may be cliché, each day we love each other more than the last and have always wanted to create a family of our own to share that love with.

Our lives together are full of excitement with friends, family and our dogs, Addy and Raven. Tim spends his day as a Financial Advisor and Jessica as a School Bus Driver. When we are not at work, we enjoy camping, taking day trips with family, exploring new restaurants, and attending an occasional football or baseball game. Although life can be crazy, we have always put ourselves and our family first and have never waivered in love and effort we put forth to create a humble home.

About Tim

From the night of our very first date, I knew Tim was something special. Tim is one of the most kind, soft spoken, easy going person I have ever met. He makes every one feel like he has known you his whole life. He is my rock, and my best friend. He knows how to make you laugh and when you need to vent or a shoulder to cry on, he is right by your side. He keeps me grounded when my imagination runs wild. You never have to ask Tim to lend a helping hand, because he is already right there. He loves sports, camping, and is an amazing cook. I've already seen first hand how amazing of an Uncle he is, and I know he will make an even more amazing Father.

About Jessica

Jessica is the heartbeat of our marriage. She has nothing but amazing qualities and her compassion, dedication and strength are truly second to none. Her silliness and ability to make everyone smile always shines through whenever needed. The thing I love most about Jessica is her ability and want to help others. I have known very early on in our relationship that we would one day have a family of our own and I cannot wait to see Jessica share all of her amazing gifts and qualities with a child of our own.

Our Home

We live in a ranch style home with 3 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms with a screened in porch and fenced in backyard. In the seven years we have lived here, the advancements we've made to our house have been a labor of love. We are on a quiet, dead end street with a local playground within walking distance. Our home is centrally located with short drives to shopping, dining, and family oriented entertainment.

We have two rescue dogs, Addy and Raven. We rescued Addy in 2014 from a local shelter when she was one year old. She is a Lab/Boxer mix and is very snuggly, loving, and full of kisses. She often competes with her sister, Raven, on who can give more kisses when you walk through the door. Raven is a two year old Lab/Shephard mix and is full of energy, hugs with her paws, and also cannot control her licker. They say a house is not complete without a dog, and we find that to be true every day.

Our door is always open for family & friends to pop in for a visit & always welcome to stay for dinner!

Our Family & friends

We both come from large families with many aunts, uncles, cousins of various ages and one nephew. They are all very excited and supportive of our adoption process. They have all known how much we have wanted to start a family together from the beginning of our relationship and they are looking forward to welcoming a new addition to share holidays and get togethers with. Tim is the oldest of three with two younger brothers. Jessica is the oldest of two and has a younger sister. Both Tim and Jessica are very close with their parents and both sides of the family enjoy coming together for cookouts, celebrations, and holidays. We are both so fortunate to have such a close knit family to carry on traditions and create new memories with.

Why Adoption

We have both wanted to start a family from the moment we said "I do." With fertility issues becoming a challenge for us in our relationship and several miscarriages, we decided that adoption was the best choice for us moving forward as a family. A child of any race or gender would be welcomed into our home with open arms and unconditional love. We are excited to become parents no matter how it happens.
