JONATHAN & JESSICA

Hi! Thank you so much for stopping to look at our profile. We're Jon and Jessica and we have been married for 6 years. We met at church where we both served on the worship team. We started our courtship as friends. From there we developed a deep love and respect for one another and were married a year later. We are followers of Jesus Christ, and we have made Him the centerpiece of our marriage and our home. We love to serve in our church.

Jon is a sales associate for a Christian family-owned business where he gets to talk about Jesus and ministry every day. He is able to work his own hours and he loves what he does. Jon is also one of the elders at our church, he is on the worship team and occasionally preaches. Jessica is a Scheduling Coordinator with a home health company. She is able to work from home and she enjoys the set schedule. She counsels young women and leads a women's bible study.

ABOUT US

Some of our favorite things to do include walks in the park near our home, getting ice cream in the summer, going on road trips, dancing in the kitchen, spending time with our family and friends, watching movies, and cooking together. We also love our local zoo and art museum.

ABOUT JESSICA

written by Jon

Jessica is without a doubt the most beautiful person in the world to me. From the very beginning, I knew my life would never be complete unless she was in it. Jessica is the living embodiment of grace, gentleness, encouragement, and compassion. One of the things I admire about her the most is her consistency in following and learning about God. Everyday, she gets up early, reads, and studies her Bible. Over the last 6 years I have had the privilege as her husband watching her grow and blossom into the leader that God has called her to be. She is hardworking, dedicated, and committed. If she says she's going to do something, she'll do it.

One of the things that always draws me to Jessica, other than her smile, is her willingness to encourage me whenever I need it. She is my biggest cheerleader. Whenever I'm down or doubting myself, Jessica always reminds me "You Got This!". My only desire as a husband is to be as sweet, loving, gracious, and kind to this sweet and beautiful woman. Jessica is a wonderful aunt to her own nieces and nephews, but she has become an honorary aunt to many children. Watching her love, help and encourage these babies and children is all the evidence that I need to know that she will make a Great Mom. With that said, I can't wait to see her become the one thing she always wanted to be: A Mother.

ABOUT JON

written by Jessica

Jon is one of the most helpful, loyal and supportive people I know. One of the first things that drew me to Jon was his heart and how kind and compassionate he is to others. I noticed from day one the way he treated his friends and family with such kindness and grace. He takes care of those around him and would do anything for anyone. Jon gave me a safe place to be myself. You can tell how other people seek him out and are so open with him that he has given them that safe place as well.

Jon is a hard worker and always does his best in everything he does. Jon has been the best uncle to our family and friends' kids. Watching him love on and play with the children in our lives has only confirmed to me that he will be a great daddy. I cannot wait to see him step into that role as I know he will love, protect and teach the child God blesses our family with.

Jon has a heart after God and wants others to know that God loves them and just wants a relationship with them. I know that he will do such a wonderful job teaching that to our children.

OUR HOME

We live in a 3 bedroom, 1 ½ bathroom home that was built in early 1900s. Our home has a beautiful sunroom that lets in a bunch of light. We have our bookshelves in that area and a big comfy chair that we love sitting in to read. Our home is located in a quiet neighborhood that is within walking distance of a park, library and Ice cream. We live minutes from grocery stores, restaurants, the police station and highway access. Our neighborhood does a lot of things including a tree lighting at Christmas time and other parades. There is a beautiful sense of community here which we love.

OUR FAMILY & FRIENDS

Family is so important to us. We live near our parents and siblings and are blessed to have close relationships with them. Our families are so excited to welcome a new child into our family. We are very thankful that they will get to be such a big part of our children's lives. We have a handful of nieces and nephews that we love and they cannot wait for another cousin to play with.

We have so many memories from our childhoods and we look forward to creating some memories with our children. Jessica has 2 brothers 1 older and 1 younger. Jon has a younger brother and sister. Any chance we get to celebrate together we take that opportunity.

We have a close group of friends that we enjoy doing life with. We are in a bible study with many of them and we also just like to hang out with each other and celebrate with each other. They have truly been a big part of our adoption journey and cannot wait to welcome this blessing with us. They have prayed and supported us throughout this whole journey and we know that they will love and support us in our journey into parenthood.

DEAR BIRTH PARENT,

Thank you so much for taking the time to review our profile and learn more about us and our family. We can only imagine the season you are currently in and how difficult navigating through this season must be. We admire your strength and courage, and we hope that you are filled with peace and comfort. Even now, we are praying that the family you select will be the best family for your child.

As parents, we promise to raise your child in a home that is safe, loving, and full of laughter. Your child will know who you are as well as their heritage and culture which we both believe are gifts of God. We also promise to train your child in the knowledge of God so that they will know who and whose they are. We pledge to raise your child up to be a respectful, responsible, and loving person that loves and serves Jesus.

Thank you again for reviewing our profile and considering us as the family for your child. We will continue to pray for you and your family every day.

Sincerely,

Jon and Jessica

WHY ADOPTION?

Adoption is something that we feel God placed on our hearts. After struggling to conceive due to PCOS, we believe that adoption is the right choice for us as having a family is something we both desire and after a season of prayer, we received peace knowing this is what God wants for our family.
