Jordan & Sheri

About Us

Hi! We're Jordan and Sheri and we want to thank you for taking time to check out our profile! We met 9 years ago, and have been married for 5 years now, and they've been the best years of our lives.

In November of 2022, we had our first child, Jones. Adopting has been a goal of ours since before we were together, and we would love to build our family in this way! We both loved growing up alongside our siblings, and we still have a great relationship with them. We'd love if our children were also blessed to have brothers and sisters close in age!

We're followers of Jesus and that's the most important thing to us. He is our Savior, Father and Friend. We fail a lot, but He is always there offering forgiveness and healing. We attend a small church and we're so grateful for our church family.

We live in a small, quiet town. We really enjoy being outside, whether it's lawn work and gardening, taking a walk to the post office, or sitting around the campfire with friends. We have family and friends just miles from us, and we love to be with them for game night, watching sports, or just hanging out!

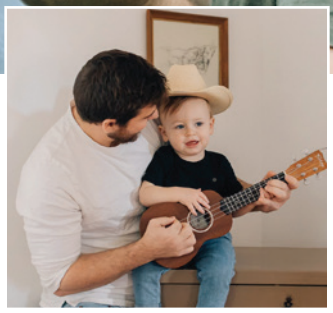
We have lots of family traditions! Christmas is our favorite. Every year, we go and pick out a fresh Christmas tree, make cookies, and constantly have Christmas music playing in the house! In the Spring, we plant a small garden and spend lots of time in the backyard. We love spending holidays with our families, and we're also excited to start new traditions with our children!

We travel as much as we can and plan to always seek out adventure with our family. Sheri's family lives in South Carolina, so we often get to take trips there and love it! We love visiting random cities for anniversary's, birthdays, etc.

We love music; listening to it, playing instruments, and going to concerts when we can!

We're so blessed to be surrounded by lots of family and friends who have young children and are very supportive of our hopeful adoption. We live nearby most of Jordan's family, and we're very close to them. Sheri's family visits us from South Carolina and it's so much fun to have them stay with us!

About Jordan by Sheri



Jordan is the friend everyone wants to have. He's loyal, steady, compassionate, and always the funniest guy in the room.

Jordan is the best dad I've ever seen! He's been a wonderful uncle to his many nieces and nephews. I've never heard him get frustrated or raise his voice at a child, he is incredibly kind and patient! I can't wait to see him teach all of our children how to do practical things, how to care for others, and how to be a good person.

He's a really hard worker. He and his brother started a business a few years ago and I'm so proud of the way he's displayed integrity and dedication in his work. He also loves being outside, whether it's fishing, basketball at the park, or making food on his smoker.

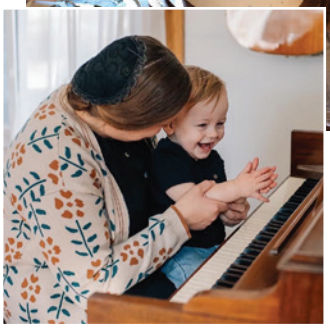
About Sheri by Jordan



Sheri is definitely my favorite person to be with, she is so sweet and loves to have fun. She has a great sense of humor. I love how she is outgoing and always makes people feel welcome and comfortable. Sheri is great at caring for those around her! I'm so happy she is a wonderful cook, she's always making something new.

She is a talented singer and musician and has given piano lessons and been part of our churches worship team. I love to hear her play guitar, piano and ukulele.

Sheri is an incredible mother to Jones and I look forward to seeing her care for our future children!

Our Home

Our home is in a quiet, friendly town. Our house was built in 1920 and we're slowly remodeling it, we love the character it has! We often take walks to our nearby friends and family, or to the post office or the park. We love our little town!

We also love going out to eat to our old favorite spots, as well as trying out new places.

We have good public schools near us, as well as private schools that we would consider for our children.

Family & Friends

We love both our families so much, and value spending time with them. Jordan is the second to youngest of 6 siblings. He has 16 nieces and nephews. Sheri is the youngest of 5 siblings, and has 14 nieces and nephew.

Both our families are very supportive of our decision to adopt, and also really excited! Sheri's family lives out of state, and most of Jordan's family lives nearby. We travel to see Sheri's family frequently for holidays and visits throughout the year. We're so grateful to have adoption support from our families. Jordan's sister and her husband have adopted two children, Sheri's brother and his wife have adopted two children, and Sheri's Grandparents adopted also, so the idea of adoption came naturally for us. With Sheri's family, we love playing games, going camping, and playing music/singing. With Jordan's family, we enjoy fishing at his parent's pond, having campfires, and going to a cabin at Christmas time. There's always good conversation with them!

Dear birth parent(s):

We don't know you, but we admire your remarkable bravery and strength. Thank you for the privilege to be considered as the adoptive parent of your child. We don't take it lightly!

We're ready to welcome another child into our home and lives. We're financially stable and preparing our hearts and minds to to add another child to our family.

If you decide that we're the right family for your child, we promise to give them a loving, stable, and fun-filled life. We will honor your wishes regarding communication. We will always honor you as the first parent(s). We will make sure the child knows how much he or she is loved, by both you and us.

We are surrounded by supportive friends, family, and church family. We promise that your child will never be lacking in love.

We value commitment, hard work, honesty, and above all, relationships. We will strive to teach your child to value these also.

We greatly value diversity and will honor your culture and your child's culture. We have a multi-race family and will ensure that our child always has racial mirrors and positive role models in his or her life.

Whether you choose us or not, we truly want the best for you and your child. We are praying peace and guidance from our Heavenly Father over your life.

Sincerely,

Jordan and Sheri

Building Blocks Adoption Service Inc.

Why Adoption?

We both had hopes of adopting before we met! Now that we have a child, we feel even more passionate about adoption and caring for children. We will provide your child with a family and community that cherishes children, provides them with love, guidance and experiences that will be a part of their everyday life. We feel we have a lot of love to give and would be so blessed to add to our family through adoption!
