Rebecca & Alan

Our Story

We first met when we were in 6th grade, we attended the same school and later on attended the same church. We were both very involved in Bible Schools, Bible Studies, missionary work in other countries. This led us in various directions until we were in our early twenties, our love for each other began. We became good friends and then best of friends and few years later were married. We enjoy our life together immensely. One of our dreams was that we would have a family of our own especially with both of us coming from a large families which we so enjoyed! About two years after our marriage, we discovered that infertility was preventing us from our dreams which became a challenge. But knowing that Our Heavenly Father really cares about each of the challenges we face, He has given us strength to continue on life's journey with joy. Adoption holds a special place in our lives. It's something we are looking forward to especially with knowing family members and friends that are adopted and have adopted. We are so blessed to have family, friends, and church family as we go through this journey of life. Each one truly adds joy to it, but above everyone else, we so treasure and enjoy our life together as husband and wife!

About Us

Rebecca's family

I (Rebecca) grew up in a family with 9 children. I was the oldest child. I grew up on farm and have many fond memories playing with my siblings and cousins. We enjoyed playing with our pony, biking, and outdoor games or in the winter we inside, read books or put puzzles together. We had a very happy home as a family. Today one our favorite traditions as a family is Christmas. We all spend Christmas Eve overnight at my Parents house and then Christmas Day as well! My parents make it a very special time for all of us, making lots of good food, all sitting around the kitchen table playing games. It's a very special time. Then we gather with all our extended families as well which is always fun.

Alan's family

I (Alan) came from a family of 10 children. I was the third oldest. I grew up on a farm and have many happy memories of playing with my pony and my dogs. We loved exploring the woods with my siblings, and I have many fond memories of helping my dad. We always enjoyed going on summer vacations to the lake, we loved water sports and going to our grandparents once a week.

About Alan By Rebecca

Falling in love with Alan is absolutely the sweetest thing in my life! I can honestly say that Alan has the biggest and most sincere heart of any man I ever met. He is so faithful, responsible, compassionate, and creative. I love his sense of humor! It adds so much laughter to our marriage. I love how he interacts with children especially our nieces and nephews. He always makes sure that they are having fun. If they need anything he is always there to help them or if something needs to be fixed they know they can bring it to Alan and he'll fix it! Alan also loves nature and outdoors and anything from gardening to kayaking, swimming, and ice skating. But above all these things Alan is most compassionate about his faith in the Lord Jesus, which the reason he is this kind and compassionate man! He is always so encouraging to me and inspires me. I so love being his wife. Alan is going to make an amazing father, and I am so excited to raise our family together with him. Alan works in his "family owned" cabinet shop. He is very creative when working with wood and does an amazing job, he makes anything from cabinets, to bookcases, bedroom furniture and dining tables. Each piece is beautiful. He only works 15 minutes from our house so whenever I need anything he's nearby which is very convenient.

About Rebecca By Alan

The first time I met Rebecca was when we were both in our early teens. I noticed that her younger siblings adored her, and I soon found out why. She puts their needs before her own. She is the most caring and sweetest woman I know. Marrying her was the best thing that ever happened to me. She is fun to be around, she loves to cook and is very talented in the kitchen! She loves children and is very gifted in caring for them and entertaining them. Rebecca has a cleaning business. Many of her clients are older people and just love it when Rebecca comes because she takes time for them and takes interest in their lives and stories. Rebecca is a real natural when it comes to gardening, she loves plants and finds it very therapeutic. But most importantly Rebecca loves the Lord! She has been a great inspiration to me. I so enjoy being her husband, she is encouraging to me when I get discouraged. I look forward to raising a family with Rebecca, I know she will make an excellent mother for our children!
