Taylor & Sierra

About Us

We are high school sweethearts who met in 2005 during our junior year. From very early on in our relationship, we knew that we were meant to be together, and we are each other's first and only love. Despite attending different colleges, our love remained strong. We have been together for 18 years, including 9 wonderful years of marriage. We have truly grown up with each other, navigating the many ups and downs of life side by side.

We enjoy playing board games, putt-putting, trying new food, traveling, going on walks and attending sporting events. These shared activities strengthen our connection and bring us lots of joy and laughter. We love each other immensely and cherish every moment we spend together. We prioritize our relationship, support each other, and work together as a team.

We are strong in our Christian faith, attend weekly Mass, and actively volunteer in various ministries. We are very family oriented, and enjoy spending as much quality time with our loved ones. Both of us have always dreamed of having a family of our own, and our journey together has only deepened that dream. We can't wait to expand our family through adoption and share our love and life with a child.

Our Home

Our home is a two story colonial with three bedrooms and two and a half baths. We moved into our home in 2018 and have worked hard to make it a warm and welcoming environment. Our house is nestled in a quiet suburban neighborhood, and we are fortunate to live extremely close to many different parks and recreational activities. Our neighborhood is filled with lots of families who have children, and is part of an excellent school system. We are located roughly 30 minutes away from a large city where we enjoy going to cheer on our sports teams or have a night out at the theater. We love our home very much and have created so many wonderful memories. We cannot wait to share our home with our future child and create more beautiful memories here.

About Sierra by Taylor

My wife Sierra is an incredible woman and I'm extremely blessed to be her husband. Throughout the almost 20 years we've been together, she never stops amazing me, never stops making me laugh with her goofy personality and never lets me go hungry. She cares so deeply about the people in her life and is always going out of her way to let them know they are loved. When it comes to her job as a teacher, she puts her heart and soul into it and it shows in the numerous recognitions she receives as well as the way children enjoy being in her decorative classroom. We have been blessed with four goddaughters and the way she loves each of them and their siblings is beautiful to witness. She's able to connect with the kids, make them laugh, spark their imagination, and they know they are loved by her. She's also my foodie partner, whether it's trying the newest restaurants, finding a new coffee spot, or getting dessert at a local ice cream/fro yo/custard shop, she knows her stuff and it's part of what makes our journey so special. She's also an incredible cook and baker and she makes sure I eat right and takes care of our family and friends when they come over. If there's any indication from our goddaughters, cousins, friends' kids or our three kitties, she's going to make an incredible mother because her children will know how much they are loved by her.

Our Family & Friends

We feel extremely blessed to have such wonderful families in our lives. We have both always been so loved and supported by our families, and they have shaped us into who we are today. Both of our families are extremely supportive of our choice to adopt and cannot wait for us to grow our family.

Sierra's parents come from large families who worked really hard to obtain a better life for their children. Both of her parents are extremely hard working, caring, loving, and kind people. Sierra's family is extremely close, and they can always rely on each other for help and support. The openness and honesty that Sierra's family shares, has always led her to feel such a sense of acceptance and unconditional love.

Thankfully, all of her family lives near each other, allowing for weekly gatherings with delicious home-cooked meals and exciting game nights. The holiday season is particularly special which kicks off on Thanksgiving, followed by Black Friday shopping, and the annual gingerbread house decorating contest. Sierra's family celebrates every holiday together, never missing a chance to gather for birthdays or special occasions, where Sierra's mom always cooks up something amazing. The connections that Sierra shares with her family brings her so much joy and laughter, and she cherishes all the moments they get to spend together.

Taylor also comes from a hardworking and loving family. His late father was a loving, caring, and funny man who made sure to provide for his family's needs and wants. His mother continues to be a loving, kind, and creative woman. Taylor also has two brothers, and maintains a close relationship with his aunts, uncles, and other relatives. Now that his mom and brother have moved back into town, his family regularly meets up to get dinner, and celebrates all holidays together. We both value spending time with our families and any new addition will be welcomed with loving arms.

Why Adoption?

Adoption has been on our hearts for the past two years, but it's something that we've always considered since we've been married. Our decision was profoundly influenced by a couple we met who adopted two children. After hearing their story and listening to their experiences, it showed us the beauty and fulfillment adoption can bring. After facing infertility due to several medical issues, we truly felt that adoption was the path we were being called to take. We cannot wait to welcome a child into our loving home and build a family we've always dreamed of.
