Anthony & Hannah

About Us

We first met as friends in middle school, laying the foundation for a relationship built on trust, laughter, and genuine connection. When our friendship blossomed into love during college, it felt natural because we already knew each other so well. Now, after 15 years of marriage, our deep friendship remains the heart of our relationship.

We are both very stable in our careers and feel very blessed in that area of our lives. Creativity is deeply ingrained in our family's dynamic, from Anthony's successful music career, Hannah's graphic design work, and our kids' both loving music and drawing. Luca takes guitar lessons and Indy is mastering the double bass.

We're lucky to have lots of family nearby and we love spending time together. Anthony's family is from italy so our passion for Italian culture runs deep – we're learning the language together as a family and love traveling to Italy, where we create lasting memories. These travels have sparked our curiosity to explore other cultures and traditions, too.

Whether we're practicing Italian over dinner, trying new restaurants, visiting the zoo, or making art as a family, every day brings new adventures. We can't wait to share our love and creativity with a new little one!

Our Promise

Our family thrives in a wonderfully diverse community, with close friends and neighbors from many cultural backgrounds. We're dedicated to actively learning about and celebrating our child's racial identity through everyday choices – from selecting the right hair and skin care products to connecting with cultural mentors and professionals in our community who will support our journey.

Our neighborhood's rich diversity is reflected in our local schools, community events, and the businesses we frequent. We believe in creating a home where our child feels deeply proud of their heritage, from the books and dolls we choose to the cultural celebrations we embrace. With support from experienced friends and professionals, we're committed to making hair care, skin care, and cultural connection an honored part of our daily family routine.

ANTHONY written by Hannah

The first thing you notices about Anthony is his joyful spirit and genuine love for people. As a talented musician, he brings creativity and passion to everything he does, but it's his dedication to family and friends that truly defines him. Whether he's teaching our kids a new song, planning our next adventure to Italy, or making everyone laugh at the dinner table, his inclusive love for people and learning shines through.

I've watched him pour his heart into his music career while never missing a moment to be there for our children – they light up whenever he walks through the door, eager to share the adventures of their day or start a new game. His Italian heritage shapes his approach to life in the most beautiful ways – from his love of bringing people together to his appreciation for culture and tradition.

In our fifteen years of marriage, Anthony has been the most supportive and loving partner I could have dreamed of. He's constantly learning, growing, and encouraging me to do the same. His combination of gentle strength and playful spirit makes him not just an incredible husband and father, but someone who genuinely makes the world a better place.

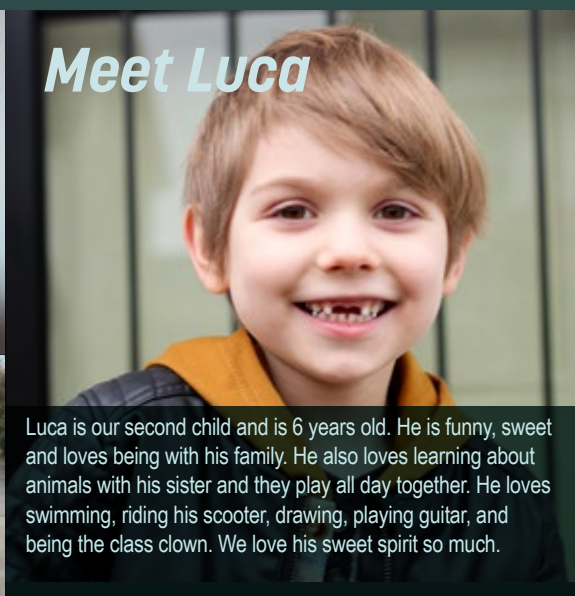
OUR KIDS

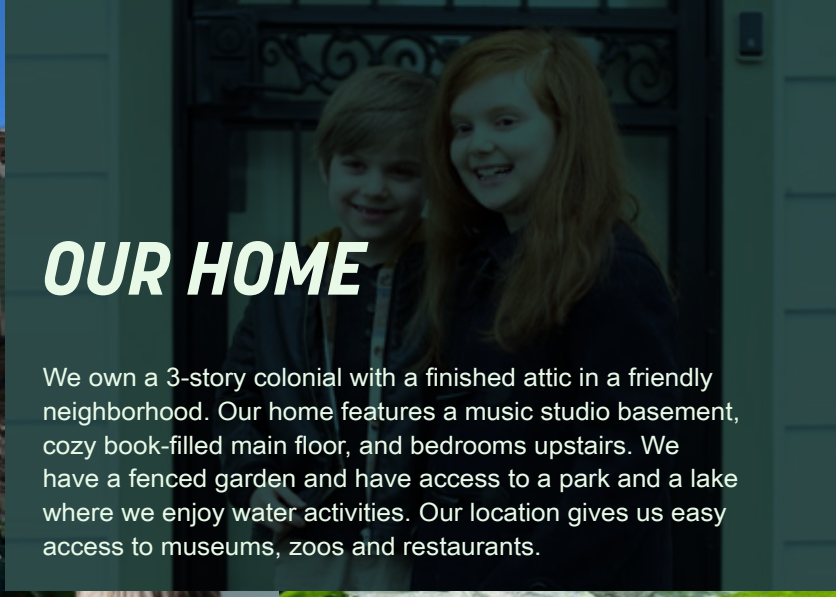
Meet Indy

Indy is our firstborn and she is 9 years old. She adores animals and learns about them constantly. She dreams of growing up to be a veterinarian. She loves playing her bass, drawing, painting, reading, swimming, playing with her brother and friends, and is a joy to be around.



Meet Luca

Luca is our second child and is 6 years old. He is funny, sweet and loves being with his family. He also loves learning about animals with his sister and they play all day together. He loves swimming, riding his scooter, drawing, playing guitar, and being the class clown. We love his sweet spirit so much.



OUR HOME

We own a 3-story colonial with a finished attic in a friendly neighborhood. Our home features a music studio basement, cozy book-filled main floor, and bedrooms upstairs. We have a fenced garden and have access to a park and a lake where we enjoy water activities. Our location gives us easy access to museums, zoos and restaurants.

OUR FAMILY

Family is very important to both of us and we are very close to our extended families. Hannah grew up one of six siblings with loving parents. She remains close to all her siblings and loves when everyone gets together for game nights or holidays. Anthony grew up with one brother and loving parents and lots of aunts and uncles and we visit with them often. Our kids adore playing with their cousins and it's been such a joy seeing them grow up together. We also have a wonderful church with lots of friends and we cherish hosting people at our home.

Why Adoption?

We both come from strong loving families and have always dreamed about being able to adopt. We truly believe that family is what you make it. We have 2 biological children but feel called to adopt to grow our family. Hannah's sister has adopted 2 girls of her own and it's been amazing to see them grow and flourish.

We love that our two children are so excited about adoption and welcoming another sibling into our family. We will actively create a home where your child feels deeply proud of who they are. From their history to their culture, they will always be cherished and supported.

Dear Birthparents,

Thank you so much for considering our family. We want to provide you with love and support through your adoption plan and peace of mind knowing your child will be loved, celebrated, and well cared for. We know that this decision is difficult and we are so thankful for the love you are showing your child by seeking a forever family. Our home is filled with music, shared meals, treasured traditions, and above all, unconditional love and support for one another. We cherish these moments together and the bonds that make us family. Whatever path you choose, we want you to know that your strength and love for your child inspire us deeply.

With heartfelt thanks for your consideration,

Anthony, Hannah, Indy & Luca
