Caleb & Tesia

About Us

We are high school sweethearts and have been married for 11 years. We are financially stable, have a strong Christian faith and enjoy our home and community. Caleb has a steady job as a mental health counselor and is passionate about seeing his clients experience healing and personal growth. Tesia is a homemaker and stay-at-home mom. She truly loves spending each day with Josiah, watching him learn and grow. We believe it is important to prioritize spending time together as a couple but also as a family. We love to be outside, travel, watch a good movie and enjoy a delicious cup of coffee. Our most recent travels took us to a few national parks, Chicago and Hocking Hills. We have a strong Christian faith which brings us much joy and encourages our commitment to our marriage and family. With our church congregation, family, and friends, we are surrounded by a supportive and loving community that share our Christian faith, family goals, and desire to grow our family through adoption

Building Our Family Through Adoption - Meet Josiah

Josiah is our 3-year-old son who joined our family at birth through adoption. He is a very happy child, full of joy and laughter. He loves to play with trucks, read books, wrestle, and play with mommy and daddy. He loves our daily walks, his playground and digging in the dirt. Josiah is a very loving, caring, and gentle little boy and we are confident he would make a wonderful brother!

Our Home

We live in a well-established neighborhood that is minutes from a park, grocery, library, schools, hospitals and our church. Our ranch-style home is quaint and cozy, tucked away on a quiet road. We have three bedrooms, two bathrooms and a fenced-in back yard with plenty of shade trees and space to play. We live in a rural community and we love it!

Tesia written by Caleb:

Tesia is radiant and beautiful, both inside and out. She strives for harmony, peace, and integrity in all aspects of her life. She parents Josiah with love and grace. Her kindness and caring spirit are some of her top strengths, and being married to her is my greatest priviledge. Knowing that her life goal was to be a mother, it brings me great joy to see her be devoted, attentive, and compassionate to Josiah each day.

Dear Birthparents

Thank you so much for taking the time to get to know us. We imagine that your decision to consider adoption is tremendously personal, emotional and difficult, and we admire the amount of courage and strength you have shown. If chosen, it is our promise and privilege to provide a safe and nurturing home that is filled with respect and laughter. Our Christian faith in God has shaped our marriage and family and will continue to do so as we grow our family through our second adoption. We are eager to welcome another child into our home and warmly welcome any race, ethnicity, gender, or special needs. We will strive to cherish our children, nurture their talents, and teach them to have courage and spread kindness. When the child grows up and asks questions about their adoption story, it is our aim to provide answers that honor your legacy, confirm that they are loved, and offer reassurance of their identity and purpose in this world.

Sincerely,

Caleb & Tesia

Why Adoption

Adoption has always been a desire for us. After much heartache and struggling with infertility, we have been blessed with the gift of adoption through the successful adoption of our son, Josiah. We are truly blessed to be trusted with such a precious gift and we would treasure the opportunity to give another child our unconditional love and support. We greatly desire to continue to grow our family through the gift of adoption.
