Olivia & Kevin

Quick Bio

We are excited to have the opportunity to tell you about us. We originally met through a dating app and had our first date in a small local ice cream shop. We had such a good time that we decided to extend our date by going bowling. It was there that we discovered just how competitive we both are. This has continued into everything we do together and tends to lead to funny stories down the line.

We are active and tend to enjoy the outdoors while golfing, playing pickleball, hiking, and gardening. Indoor hobbies we also enjoy are playing board games, video games, and baking. Olivia will bake new items every week.

We love traveling! Typically, we have long road trips and make stops along the way to see everything we can. Hiking is one of our favorite things to do because we can go outside, enjoy nature, and spend quality time with each other.

These, of course, are in addition to the things we value most which are spending time with our families, friends, God, and our dog Tucker.

Our Home

Our Home is a colonial house, built in the early 1900s. Our house consists of 3 bedrooms, 2 bathrooms, an unfinished basement, a back patio, and small front porch. We live on 2 acres of land with a fenced-in back yard. We have very friendly neighbors who we chat with on a regular basis.

About Kevin by Olivia

Something fun about Kevin is that he initially grew up Amish. He has so many stories about his childhood that make you giggle. His background led him to have a strong work ethic and value his faith and family above everything. Kevin is one of the most loyal people I know. He is very comforting and will always be there when you need him. He is ambitious about everything in his life and wants to be his best self for his family. He is super competitive and is always ready for another game. Kevin is the biggest cheerleader for the people he loves. He has such a kind heart and will give you the shirt off his back. Kevin is a carpenter and builds cabinets for a living. He loves his job and the people he works with. The cabinets he gets to build are all custom, so he has a lot of fun with the unique projects he gets to help create. Kevin has such a fun and compassionate soul and lights up every room he is in.

About Olivia by Kevin

From the day I met Olivia she has always been a hard worker, loyal, and is always there for me when I need it. She is always thinking about our family when making decisions that are big or small. She is the youngest of four, two sisters and a brother. When she is around my family she fits right in, and my family accepts her as is. Olivia is a great baker and is talented at everything she does including hobbies like pickleball, golf, and board games. She is competitive, which is great when we are a team, but sucks when we are competing against each other. For her job, Olivia started as a lab chemist right out of school and through her hard work and dedication, she earned her way to become manager of the lab. She went through four years of college to get to where she is in her career. To sum things up about Olivia, when she sets her mind to something she will achieve her goal. No matter what that goal is, she will always put our family above everything else. She is a wonderful and cheerful person that is a joy to be around every day.

Our Families

Our families are very supportive in our journey. Olivia's parents live about 40 minutes away and are very helpful and encouraging. Olivia's mom always makes sure to call us weekly in order to check-in and make sure that we are doing well. Olivia's parents also will always try to take us out for dinner on any special occasion to celebrate us and to spend quality time with us. They take their grandchildren out to do fun things like going to the zoo, children's museums, and other fun interactive activities.

Kevin's family lives just over an hour away. Kevin's parents are very supportive too. Kevin's mom is very compassionate and supports us in a variety of ways like baking or cooking food for us, always willing to come hang out, and being there whenever we need it. Kevin's dad supports us by staying connected through communication and always checking to see how we are doing. If we need help around the house, he is always willing to come and help with whatever projects that we have going on.

Dear Birthparent(s),

We are very thankful to have the opportunity to tell you about us! We cannot imagine how difficult this decision is for you, but we hope we can provide as much information as possible in this profile for you to be confident in your decision. We will do everything in our power to give your child the best life they can have so they can grow up to be a strong and caring person. We want to provide encouragement, love, and support throughout their life. We are looking forward to being there through it all from reading bedtime stories, cheering them on in the stands, baking birthday cakes, picking them up when they fall, scaring the monsters out from closets, helping them through science projects, laughing at family jokes, growing old with them, and ensuring they know they always have people who love them. We hope we are able to give you a better idea of who we are, what we value, and how deep we desire to become your child's adoptive parents. Thank you again for considering us and we will be praying for your strength and peace as you make this decision.

Sincerely,

Olivia and Kevin

Why Adoption?

There are many reasons why we want to adopt. Olivia has watched her nieces grow up and loves to spend time with them. She has seen their personalities grow as they get older, which made her want to have kids of her own. Due to her birth defect Olivia is unable to have kids, so adoption has always been something that she has wanted. For Kevin, he has always wanted kids even when he was in high school. He always thought he wanted to adopt when he got older, so when he found out Olivia couldn't have kids it just aligned.

We believe that family is built on love, commitment and shared values. In considering adoption, we believe that every child deserves a safe nurturing and permanent home where they are fully seen, supported and celebrated. Adopting a child of a different race is about embracing them with the intention and respect. The child's racial and cultural identity is a vital part of who they are, and we ensure that our home reflects inclusivity, representation and pride in who they are.

We both love our little family, however we feel it is currently incomplete. We have watched friends and family add to their own families. We are envious of watching their hearts and minds grow through adding a family member and we want to grow through love of a child and strengthen the bonds that make us a family.
